Contribution to Event Success and Coordination The operations department manages venue selection, site layout, equipment procurement, scheduling, transportation, and on-site coordination.Operations also serves a critical coordination role by integrating the spatial and temporal requirements of multiple departments.For example, operations must coordinate production's technical needs, programming's scheduling requirements, catering's service areas, and safety's emergency access routes.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com