

Good eating habits, which counter the trend of obesity and lifestyle-related diseases, are increasing and have firmly taken root based on a survey that measures the food consumption behaviour of UAE expatriates.