

1-prompt pain control reduce the affect of pain on patient function and quality of life.It allows you to spot any competitors seeking to register a patent similar to – or conflicting with – yours or make an application that could potentially affect your business